Lesson One, the letter 'e'	5

Quick Start Guide

Read the book WITH your child. You read the “regular” text, and he/she reads the big, red words, sort of like reading the different parts in a play.

Help your child sound out the words as needed.

Read the book several times. This helps develop the eye muscles and left-to-right reading patterns.

Don't rush it. Body-builders don't train in a day – neither does a child.

And most important of all, HAVE FUN!

Lesson 1

This is the letter 'e' –

e

The letter 'e' says “-eh- for elephant.” Can you say “-eh- for elephant”?

Lesson 1

We use the “-eh-” sound in lots of words, like:

Elephant
elevator.

Endless eggs.

Empty envelopes.

Lesson 1

Show me the pictures that start with the “-eh-” sound.

Answer: Elbow, egg, elephant, envelope.

Lesson 1

Here are two words we can make with the letter 'e' – can you read them?

ed

ted

ed and ted were
two teddy bears,
who lived at the park
in Never-Ever-Where.

One day, ed and
ted saw dan,
stomping his feet and
shaking his hands.

“Ugh,” said ted, as he hitched up his pants, “if there’s one thing I hate

Deep inside, ed

thought it looked like fun.

But whatever ted
said was the way
it was done.

ted frowned and
called out to the deer.
“You have to go away.
You can’t dance here.”

dan just waved –
his headphones were on,
and the radio was playing
his favorite song.

“Hey, deer!” said ted.

“You have to stop!”

ted was so angry

that he started to hop.

And dan thought the bear was dancing too,
so he smiled at ted
and said, “Whoo, hoo!”

ted ran at dan

to punch him in the nose.

He did not see the rock

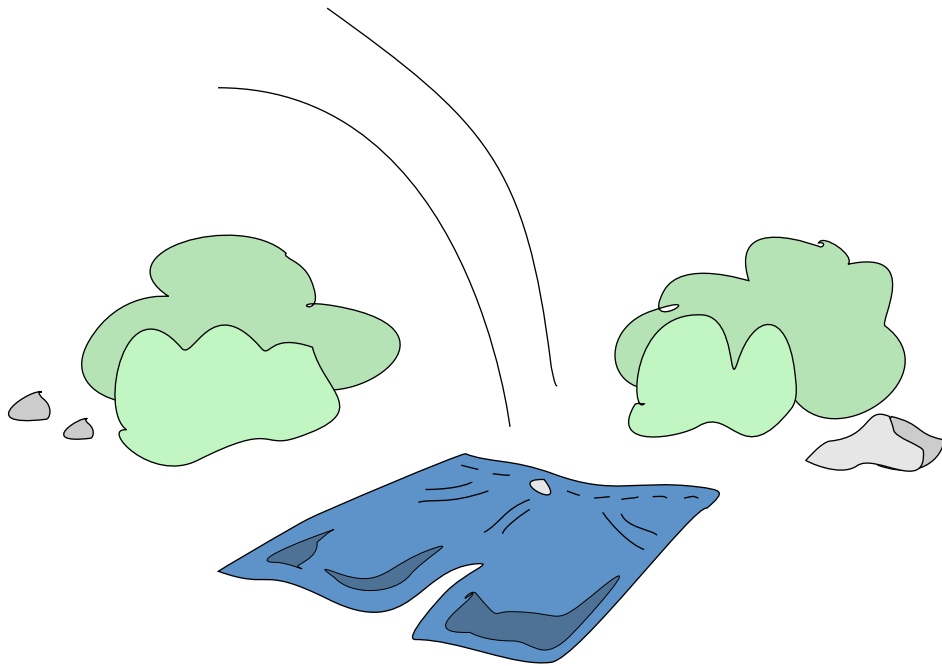

that tripped his toes.

ted went flying
through the air –
a whirling, twirling
teddy bear.

ted landed in
a bush with a
thump and a yelp.

His fancy, schmancy
pants landed
somewhere else.

“Oh, no!” thought ted.

“I must get my pants.

No one can see

me – no they can’t!”

So when ed
ran over to help
his friend,

ted said, “ed!”

Who are those
crazy men?”

“What men? Where?”
ed looked over his shoulder...

...as ted hid
behind a bigger,
better boulder.

A boulder is a large rock.

“Where did he go?”

dan said to ed...

...as ted crawled
away with a branch
on this head.

And just before ted
reached his pants,

dan jumped out,
“Hey! Do you want
to dance?”

ted screamed in surprise... “I don’t know... maybe later..

“But look over
there – an alligator!”

ted grabbed

his pants to put them on.

In his hurry,
ted got it
all wrong.

ed said, “ted,
what happened to
your pants?”

ted lied again,

“I was trying to
do a dance.”

So when dan said,
“Let’s all do a dance,”

ted couldn't say
no, and he couldn't
say, "I can't."

All ted could do
was dance, dance,
dance.

And before very
long, ted started
to have fun,

and the three new
friends danced all
day in the sun.
