This is the letter "s" – the letter "s" says, "Ssssssss," like in sun, sock, soap and six.

S

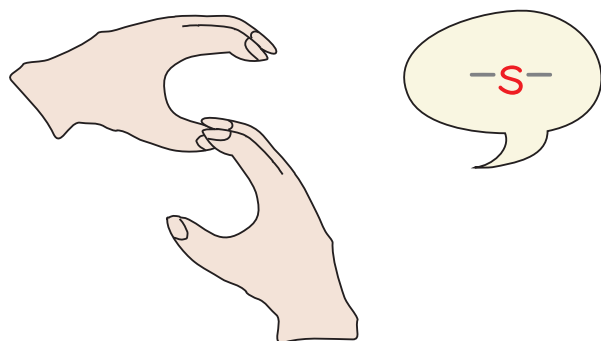

The letter "s" not only sounds like a snake – "Ssssss!" – it looks like a snake.

And what does the letter "s" say?
(Have the child make the letter "s" sound several times.)

And let's see who can make the "sssss" sound the longest!

Let's use our hands to make the letter "s" —

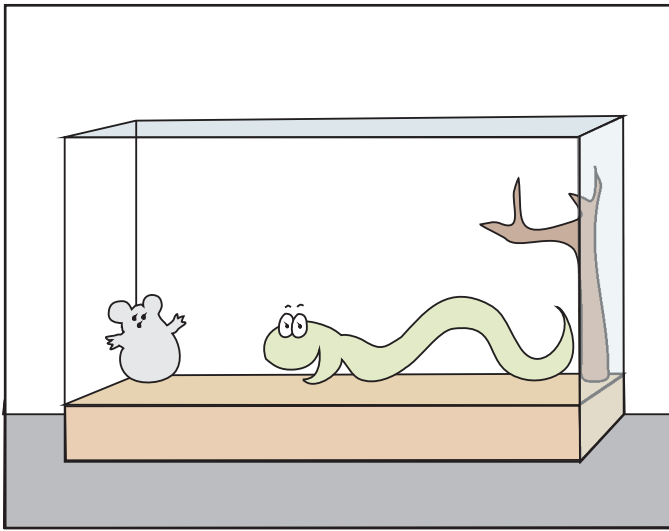

And what does the letter "s" say? ("Ssssssss!")

Here are some words we can make with the letter "s":

sid is a snake who lives
in a glass cage with a toy mouse called sis. Hello, sid. Hello, sis.

sid talks to sis all day long. sid talks about the weather, the news
and what sid saw on TV last night.

And because sis is a toy mouse and cannot speak, sid speaks for her.

“Oh, yes, sid, what a clever snake you are.”

One day, sid wakes up,
and sis isn't there.
sid calls for her.

“sis, where are you?”

sid looks everywhere
for sis, but he can't find her. Can YOU see where sis is?

sid is sad. sid
is so sad that he starts to cry. "Boo, hoo, hoo," says sid. "Where is sis?"

Then, out of the corner of his eye, sid sees a big – a really big – bulge in his tummy.

“Oh, no!” says sid.
“This is bad. This is very, very bad. How did sis get in my tummy?”

And then sid remembers.

When sid sleeps, sid snores. Sometimes, sid snores so loudly that the whole cage shakes.

And last night, sid

snored so much that

sis fell off the shelf, straight into his big

mouth.

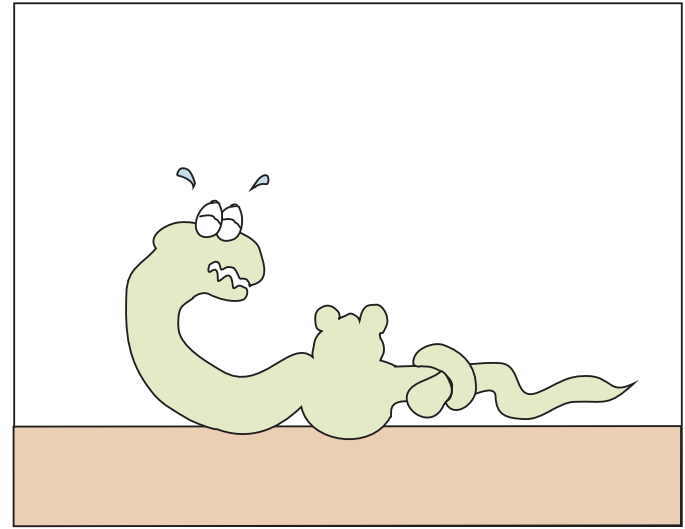

sid scratches his head.

How is he going to get

sis out of his tummy?

Aha! sid has an idea –

a big, big idea...

sid ties a knot in his tail, right below sis.

sid squeezes and squeezes.

“Come on, sis,” says

sid. “Out you come...”

sis comes flying out
with a big pop,
and sid isn't sad
anymore.

"Oh, sis," says sid.
"I am so happy to see you.
Are you happy to see me?"
And because sis can't speak, sid speaks for her.

THE END

"Yes," says sid for
sis. "I am happy to see you too, sid, because you are so handsome to look at."
